ETHICAL POLICY

Norscot Technical Services Ltd, and its trading divisions, believe that all our economic activity should be politically, socially and environmentally responsible.

Our aims are:

- Promote transparency of economic activity;
- Provide honest and open customer service;
- Develop long-term relationships with producers and suppliers;
- Within our own workplace we will practice equality and fairness at work and provide a good working environment for our colleagues;
- We will use methods of working that are beneficial to the environment such as recycling and energy efficiency;
- Support local trade when ever feasible.

Norscot Technical Services Ltd, and its trading divisions, will not deal with businesses that fail to uphold basic human rights or support organisations that advocate discrimination, incitement to hatred or have links to an oppressive regime.
